

NEW FACE IN RED PARADE—A procession of German Communist youth carries large portraits of Red leaders up the Unter den Linden into Lustgarten Square, Berlin. Most notable addition to the lineup is the Chinese Communist boss, Mao Tse-tung, at left rear. Next in line is Marshal Stalin, followed by Nikolai Lenin and Friedrich Engels. Making a grim backdrop for the Red demonstration are the ruins of a war blasted Berlin building.

Plot To Kill Gen. MacArthur Branded Fake

TOKYO—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby said tonight occupation headquarters had received Japanese reports of another plot to assassinate General MacArthur but he called them "an absolute fake."

"Nobody is going to kill Santa Claus," Willoughby, MacArthur's intelligence officer, said.

Mental Case Arrested
He disclosed an "excitable" Japanese policeman had informed occupation headquarters that police had arrested a Japanese who "apparently was a paranoiac"—a man who thinks the world is against him.

Headquarters "refuses to accept this story as evidence of a plot," Willoughby said. He added that no extra guards had been assigned to MacArthur.

Another American source said the alleged plot as told to occupation headquarters was this:
An unidentified Tokyo organization, reportedly leftist, planned to kill MacArthur near downtown Hibaya Park, not far from his headquarters.

The date originally was set for May 14 or 15 but was postponed until June 4 to coincide with the upper house of Parliament elections.

Passes Spot Daily
The man arrested supposedly was involved in the plan but it was not clear whether he was to be the assassin. There was no information concerning the organization and no details as to how the killing was to be done.

MacArthur rides past a section of Hibaya Park four times daily in commuting between his office and his American embassy home.

Quadruple Amputee Of War 2 To Marry

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP)—One of the nation's two quadruple amputees of World War II plans to marry.

Jimmy Wilson, 25-year-old student at the University of Florida, applied for a license yesterday to marry Dorothy Mortenson here on June 8.

Wilson's hands and feet were amputated after a bomber crash in Vermont in 1944.

The bride, who also lives here, is 23.

Jap Communists Face Showdown In Strike

TOKYO—(AP)—Japan's Communists, goaded to fighting temper by international revolutionists, may face a showdown in tomorrow's anti-American "general strike."

Reliable Japanese sources said today General MacArthur's headquarters is studying a government plan to outlaw the Japan Communist party.

The details already are known to the Communists through the usual leaks, the sources said.

Whether the plan will be adopted may depend greatly on the Communist demonstrations tomorrow. The Red party predicted more than 400,000 labor unionists and thousands of students would join in the nation-wide strike.

Violence such as the Memorial Day kicking and stoning of American troops may result in the Japanese government outlawing the Communist party.

The strike was called in reprisal for the speedy trial of eight Japanese charged with attacking five U. S. soldiers Monday. It also is designed to influence Sunday elections for the upper house of parliament.

A U. S. military court, pushing the trial along at a fast pace, went into another night session.

Japanese sources said the Communists already are making plans to go underground if the government outlaws their party.

MacArthur, who gave the party legality in 1945, twice in the last year suggested pointedly that it no longer is entitled to this status.

Family Pickets Detroit Union

DETROIT—(AP)—At headquarters of the CIO United Auto Workers Union comes up something new in picketing.

It's a family picket line—father, mother and two small sons—and the union is the target.

The father, John Shures, 31, an expelled UAW—CIO member, charges the union is keeping him from holding a job. The union denies that.

Shures and his family started picketing yesterday and he said they'd continue "until I get a job and the union reinstates me."

One son, John, 5, carried a placard saying "I need medical care but Reuther (Walter Reuther, UAW president) won't let my daddy work."

The other, Norman, 7, had a sign which said "we demand Reuther have our daddy reinstated to his job."

Mother Lucille marched along with them.

United Press Strike Believed Near End

NEW YORK—(AP)—A federal mediator announced last night that negotiators had agreed on a formula for settling the five-week old strike of 265 teletype operators and maintenance men against the United Press.

Commissioner J. R. Mandelbaum of the federal mediation service said terms of the agreement would not be made public pending ratification by tonight.

Auditor Raps Liquor Control Driving Costs

LANSING—(AP)—The auditor general's staff reported today that the State Liquor Control Commission's negligence in collecting overdue accounts has cost the state "substantial sums of money."

An audit listed $131,958 in accounts due more than 12 months. It recommended "more aggressive and systematic" efforts to collect such accounts.

Accounts Written Off
Among those cited as examples of negligence were $121,766 owed by the Star Transfer company in a long-standing dispute over hauling commission merchandise, and a $7,469 claim against the Continental Casualty Company filed in 1945 for loss by an employee fraud. Both accounts were written off as uncollectible last November.

The auditors criticized the mounting car mileage accumulated by executives and employees of the commission.

They said that in the past fiscal year mileage totalled 98,513 miles as the result of using cars permanently assigned to the commission from the state motor pool.

Vacation Trip Cited
In 1946-47, using personal cars and those drawn as needed from the state pool, the commission accumulated 62,686 miles, the auditors said.

Mileage has increased 17.1 per cent and costs 37.3 per cent, the report declared.

Commissioners and executives use state cars for personal travel to and from their homes and one traveled 700 miles in a state car on vacation, the report said.

Nephew Denies Killing Widow

SCARBOROUGH, Me.—(AP)—The battered body of a well-to-do widow was found in a watery ditch early today after her 19-year-old nephew was taken into custody at gunpoint while driving her blood-stained car.

The body of Mrs. Viola Tulley, 56, was discovered by police less than six hours after she was found missing from her blood-spattered home in Melrose, Mass., nearly 150 miles from Scarborough.

Her nephew, William N. Elwell, of Brunswick, Me., was captured by police in Portland, Me., but denied he killed Mrs. Tulley.

Portland Police Capt. Douglas Steele quoted the husky, six-foot, two-inch youth as saying that two men broke into his aunt's home and killed her while they were eating.

Then, Steele said Elwell told him the men forced him to put the woman in the trunk of her car and drive to Maine. Elwell said the men dumped the body in a ditch, made him drive to Portland and then fled, according to Steele.

Crushed By Trucks

TOLEDO, O.—(AP)—Cisco Zimmerman, 32, of Hudson, Mich., was injured fatally yesterday when he was crushed between two trucks which were being loaded with sand at the Toledo Glass Sand and Stone Co. at nearby Silica, O. He died in Toledo hospital. Zimmerman was an employee of the Scotty Trucking Co. of Hudson.

Blazing Truck Rams Adrian, Mich., Home; One Dead, 9 Escape

ADRIAN, Mich.—(AP)—An Ohio truck driver braved to death, but nine persons escaped unhurt through a basement window last night as a gasoline truck plowed into a home here and turned it into an inferno.

Raymond Buchhop, 22, of Gerold, Ohio, was trapped in the wreckage of his truck and so badly burned by its 4,000-gallon gasoline load that identity had to be established through license plates of the vehicle.

The flames even obliterated the name of the fuel company from the sides of the truck. It was owned by Jesse Short, Archbold, Ohio, and leased to Paul Gilmer, Toledo.

It was en route to Jackson, Mich.

The truck driver had swerved to avoid a car coming out of a

GAMBLER INDICTED—New York gambler Frank Erickson was booked at a Manhattan police station after a grand jury returned a 60-count gambling and conspiracy information against him. Gasoline Price Raise Blamed On Governor

LANSING—(AP)—Governor Williams said yesterday he would order an investigation of the "projected" half-cent-a-gallon increase in the price of gasoline in Michigan.

He said he did not know what form the investigation would take but that "I intend to look into it by some effective method."

Earlier, Harry T. Ward, president of the Michigan good roads federation, sought to blame Williams indirectly for the gas price increase.

The governor's office said Williams did not know of Ward's statement when he announced the investigation.

Ward, deputy state highway commissioner and a Republican, said that Williams' refusal to let the Legislature consider higher gasoline taxes had "smoothed the way" for the petroleum industry to increase gas prices.

Ward said the industry has fought a gas tax increase for highway improvements since 1946 but in that time has increased the price of gas seven cents a gallon.

Accusing the oil companies of making record profits, Ward said the best way to avoid a state-wide price increase would be for Williams to let the legislature consider boosting the tax when it reconvenes June 20.

Bumpy Ohio Air Makes Chicago Queen III

DAYTON, O.—(AP)—The air between Columbus and Dayton turned out to be too windy for the girl from the windy city yesterday.

Miss Chicago—whose real name is Teresa Giorgan—is on a 12,000-mile air tour publicizing the Chicago Fair of 1950, which opens soon. Her job is to invite mayors of major cities to the fair.

In Columbus she invited Mayor James A. Rhodes, then hopped in a plane for Dayton. But it was pretty bumpy between Columbus and Dayton, and Miss Chicago became airsick and indisposed.

City Manager Russell McClure was at the airport to receive the invitation. It was handed him by Marty Brown, a United Air Lines stewardess.

Senate Committee Approves Extension Of Rent Controls

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Banking committee approved 8 to 5 today legislation to keep federal rent controls for another six months. The present control law expires June 30.

Like a bill pending in the House, the Senate committee's measure also would permit cities to keep controls for the first six months of 1951 if their governing bodies voted to keep them.

Novelist Freed After Hotel Bill Is Paid

GEORGETOWN, Del.—(AP)—A woman who told police she was novelist Ursula Parrott is today free of charges that she failed to pay a $225 hotel bill at Princess Anne, Md.

After being held in $500 bail yesterday the woman was released when friends in Beverly Hills, Calif., wired money to pay the bill warden William Robb of the Sussex county prison said.

Dubious Republicans Expect Approval Of Foreign Arms Aid

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Republicans cast dubious eyes today on President Truman's new $1,222,500,000 foreign arms program but conceded it probably will get Congress' approval.

In a scheduled appearance before two Senate committees secretary of state Acheson fills in today the outline of what Mr. Truman described yesterday as a "dynamic program of constructive action x x x to expand the freedom and increase the well-being of all free people."

Closer to Peace
In a message to Congress the President said the need for such action "has never been more plain."

However, he told his news conference a few hours later that the world is now closer to peace than at any time during the last five years.

While Mr. Truman did not throw any further light on the seeming conflict between his two statements, officials said what he apparently meant in his comment to reporters was that such moves as those to rearm this nation's European Allies have reduced the danger of Russian aggression.

Some $1,314,010,000 in American munitions already are being sent abroad, Acheson was to testify on the administration's request for additional funds before the first of a series of public hearings held jointly by the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees.

In his message, Mr. Truman asked specifically for $1,000,000,000 for further armament of the Western European Democracies opposing the advance of Communism.

Invitation For Russia
He proposed a $200,000,000 outlay to continue bolstering Greece and Turkey, $27,500,000 for Iran, South Korea and the Philippines.

Hamilton was appointed by U. S. District Court Judge James P. McGranery yesterday in compliance with Gold's request for counsel. Augustus S. Ballard, like Hamilton a member of the Philadelphia law firm headed by George Wharton Pepper, former U. S. senator from Pennsylvania, was named associate counsel.

Gold asked for counsel "who would not make a show; have no radical connections, no leftist or pinkish background whatever."

He was arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation here May 23, charged with turning over atomic bomb secrets to Russia. His arrest followed FBI conversations with Dr. Klaus Fuchs, Russian spy convicted in England.

Judge McGranery said after a conference with Gold on Wednesday that Gold told him he would plead guilty to being a courier for the Soviet atom spy ring, but that he would not admit the part of the charges against him alleging intent to harm the United States.

Agent To Retire

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich.—H. O. Grade, Iron Mountain agent for the Milwaukee railroad since 1941, will retire Aug. 1, he announced today. Grade has been employed by the railroad for 41 years. He said he and Mrs. Grade plan to leave shortly after Aug. 1 to make their home in Plymouth, Wis.

Catholics Increase

NEW YORK—(AP)—There are 27,766,141 Catholics in the United States, Alaska and Hawaii—an increase of 3.4 per cent during the past year, the official Catholic directory for 1950 says.

The directory said the increase over last year was 1,047,798.

Jury Asks No Death Penalty For Killer Of Woman Sergeant

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—An all-male federal jury convicted Sgt. Lyle Buswell of the rape slaying of attractive WAF Sgt. Fairy Decker, 44, but recommended that he be spared from the death penalty.

The verdict, after more than six hours of deliberation last night, left some doubt whether the burly Rutland, Vt., soldier would escape death in the San Quentin penitentiary gas chamber.

Federal Judge Louis Goodman said he was puzzled at the wording of the verdict. After the jury was excused he expressed doubt as to the validity of the recommendations.

Specifically the jurors found the 33-year-old airman guilty of second degree murder, murder committed during rape, and rape. To the last two, the jurors added the phrase "without capital punishment."

The penalty for rape on a military reservation is death unless the government stipulates to a lesser punishment. The government had asked for the death penalty.

Buswell showed no emotion as the verdicts were read finding him guilty on each count, but as he was being led from the courtroom he was heard telling his attorney, James E. Burns:

"Well, you did everything you could."

and $75,000,000 for arms aid to the area around China.

While this latter proposal was pleasing to many of the Republicans who have been urging that positive steps be taken to prevent complete Communist domination of Asia, there were objections to provisions.

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP policy committee, told a reporter he is opposed to the whole principle of trying to arm other nations because he is afraid it invites Russia to go to war. But he conceded that since Congress embarked on the plan last year, it won't turn back now.

"I don't approve of the policy, but I won't lead any fight on the program," the Ohio Senator said.

Lawyer Picked To Defend Spy

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee when Alf Landon was GOP presidential candidate, is chief defense counsel for Harry Gold, 39-year-old research chemist accused of wartime espionage.

Hamilton was appointed by U. S. District Court Judge James P. McGranery yesterday in compliance with Gold's request for counsel. Augustus S. Ballard, like Hamilton a member of the Philadelphia law firm headed by George Wharton Pepper, former U. S. senator from Pennsylvania, was named associate counsel.

Gold asked for counsel "who would not make a show; have no radical connections, no leftist or pinkish background whatever."

He was arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation here May 23, charged with turning over atomic bomb secrets to Russia. His arrest followed FBI conversations with Dr. Klaus Fuchs, Russian spy convicted in England.

Father Of Michigan Guard Promoted To Brigadier General

LANSING—(AP)—Col. John S. Bersey (Ret.), father of the Michigan National Guard, was promoted to brigadier general yesterday by Governor Williams.

Lured to the executive office on a pretext, the veteran officer was unaware that his promotion had been recommended by the state military board.

Gen. Bersey was adjutant general of Michigan for a quarter of a century and was generally credited with the authorship of Michigan's present military establishment.

Enlisting in the guard in 1889, Gen. Bersey served more than 50 years and was believed to have served longer than any other man in the guard.

First Flight Draws Crowd

But Wind Prevents
Escanaba Landing

A strong westerly wind, with gusts up to 40 mph, prevented Wisconsin Central Airlines' first scheduled flight from Chicago to Escanaba Thursday from landing at the Escanaba airport, but the plane made its scheduled landing at 5:52 p. m., Escanaba time, on the southbound flight.

There were no passengers discharged or taken aboard at Escanaba but 37 pounds of airmail, including first flight covers to collectors throughout the country, were taken aboard. There were five passengers on the plane at the arrival in Escanaba.

A large crowd of Delta county residents was on hand in the afternoon for the anticipated arrival of the WC Lockheed plane from Chicago. The plane circled the field for 20 minutes in the hope that the wind would abate and permit a landing on the north-south runway. The Wisconsin Central planes are not permitted by the Civil Aeronautics administration to land on the east-west runway at the Escanaba airport because the runway does not meet CAA standards. The wind subsided later in the afternoon to permit a landing on the southbound flight.

The scheduled air show by National Guard and U. S. Army Air Forces planes also was cancelled. Plans to take local residents on free sight-seeing trips over the city in local private planes likewise were thwarted by poor flying conditions but Fred Sensiba, manager of Pioneer Aviation, has reported that the free plane trips will be offered Sunday afternoon from two to three o'clock.

Despite the lack of flying activity, the speaking ceremonies at the Escanaba airport were held as scheduled. Lawrence Girard served as master of ceremonies and introduced President Francis M. Higgins, of Wisconsin Central Airlines, Mayor Peter Logan of Escanaba, and representatives of the Railway Express company, the U. S. Postoffice Department and the Civil Aeronautics administration. Mayor Logan was presented with an aviation pin by Wisconsin Central Airlines in commemoration of the occasion.

Retired C&NW Agent Dies

Charles Heimerdinger
Worked At Powers

Charles Heimerdinger of Chicago, former agent in Menominee for the Chicago & North Western Railway company, died Sunday after an extended illness.

He was 90 years old and had lived with a son, Walter Heimerdinger in Chicago since his retirement on April 1, 1930. Masonic rites were conducted at the burial service on Tuesday in Barrington, Ill., where he was born on March 9, 1860. Mr. Heimerdinger had been a member of the Masonic order since 1884.

He started working for the North Western at Barrington in 1876, at the age of 16 years and the more than half a century of service was put in on the Wisconsin and Peninsula divisions of the road.

As a boy in Barrington Mr. Heimerdinger frequented the railroad station doing errands for the agent and finally in 1876 got a regular job as a general helper at $30 a month, handling baggage and making himself generally useful. He learned telegraphy and soon was able to hold down the job of night operator. He was up and down the Wisconsin division in northern Illinois several years as relief operator and agent until he was sent into the peninsula division in Michigan.

Mr. Heimerdinger's first job was as an operator at the Powers-Spalding stations under George H. Haggerson, agent at both stations. He was there seven months and in October, 1882, was appointed agent at Vulcan and served there for 22 years. In August, 1904, Mr. Heimerdinger was transferred to Menominee as agent, succeeding A. N. LaComb, who went to Green Bay.

North Western Ore Car Is Derailed

IRON MOUNTAIN — Minor damage resulted to a short stretch of North Western railroad track at 7:30 Wednesday night, 300 feet west of the US-2 crossing, near the Lake Antoine road, when one car of an ore train en route to Escanaba jumped the track as it was being switched from an auxiliary track to the main line.

The loaded ore train was being moved from a siding onto the main track, when one car—the second behind the engine—jumped the track. Section crews were called to the scene and repaired the damaged track, allowing the engine to pull the car back onto the rail. The ore train left for Escanaba at about 11 p. m.

Death Mystery Finally Solved

Eye Glasses Prove Man's Identity

The mystery of the charred and decomposed body found two years ago about 13 miles south of Escanaba on the shore of Green Bay today was written off as "solved" by Sheriff William Miron.

Solution to the search for identification became final the other day when the sheriff received a letter from Dr. Alvin Sattel, Johnstown, Pa., ophthalmologist.

Eye glasses found with the body "apparently seem to be identical to those of Clair A. Beam," Dr. Sattel wrote. Other points of comparison of the glasses correspond with those on the doctor's record, and "the lenses in the frame are the exact type of bifocals as I had prescribed for Mr. Beam," he concluded.

Beam's body was found on the bay shore south of Misery bay on Aug. 27, 1948. It was wedged between two logs and a wallet and shoes were partly charred in the remains of a nearby fire.

Mrs. A. R. Kridler of Johnstown, Pa., sister of Beam, on Nov. 4, 1948, reported that her brother was missing. He was a veteran of World War I, was in ill health, and had indicated his intention of suicide, the sister informed the bureau of missing persons.

Local officers were unable to identify the body and it was not until the remains of the wallet were turned over to the state crime laboratory in Lansing, and information was received from the bureau of missing persons that final identification was made.

The body of the then unidentified man was buried in Escanaba.

Fishermen Ask Harbor Space

Fear Pressure For Their Ouster

Escanaba commercial fishermen petitioned the city council Thursday night to set aside a portion of the city yacht harbor to be used exclusively for commercial fishing boats, conceding that the present situation at the harbor is unfair to sports fishermen and pleasure craft owners.

The council established the area at the yacht harbor entrance from the marine railway east for the commercial boats, with the provision that no commercial fishing boats would be permitted to moor west of the marine railway. The commercial fishermen had suggested that dock space be established on the north side of Sand island from the entrance to the starting point of the sand beach.

37 Boats Apply

The area designated by the city will provide moorage for 10 boats or perhaps 12 at the most. At present 37 commercial fishing boats have applied for space at the yacht harbor and the fishing boats have practically taken over the entire harbor.

The petition presented to the council follows: "We the undersigned being fishermen residing in the City of Escanaba, and who for years have made Escanaba their fishing port, are beginning to realize that something must be done with regard to protecting the rights and privileges of sports fishermen and vestigated unless Lee was discharged.

Sawyer has said that his action against the two men is grounded "in the interest of good administration" rather than loyalty.

pleasure craft owners in local waters, or eventually there will be sufficient pressure brought to bear on the City of Escanaba by sports fishermen and pleasure craft owners that the small craft harbor will be closed completely to commercial fish boats.

"We realize that the small boat harbor is an integral part of the park system of the City of Escanaba, and that it was primarily constructed for the enjoyment of the citizens of Escanaba and not to be used exclusively or in part for commercial purposes.

Eight Signatures

"In order to forestall any possible action by the aforesaid groups, we respectfully petition the City of Escanaba to set aside a portion of the harbor to be used exclusively for commercial fishing. The area that we think should be set aside is the dock space on the north side of the island from the entrance to the starting point of the sand beach. We feel that the fishermen are not asking too much of the city in alloting us this space. It will be out of the way and not be a nuisance to anyone as far as the park system is concerned. We ask, however, that the area be made available to us within a reasonable time by the building of a sufficiently adequate road to this area."

The petition was signed by Ralph Christensen, Emil Perow, Anton Trzeclak, Earl Johnson, Henry Dahm, George Hansen, Harold Olson and Melvin Jacobson.

Volunteers Put Out Rapid River Fire

RAPID RIVER, Mich.—Robert Olson, Rapid River teacher, and Lawrence Malnor, John Scott, Horace LaBumard and Art Hassell, students, formed a bucket brigade and extinguished a fire at the Dillabaugh farm, north of Rapid River, on Tuesday evening.

The blaze, apparently started by lightning, threatened the barn and a nearby home. Water was hauled from a stream and the barn fire was placed under con-

Trade Officials Facing Ouster

By CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The commerce department pressed ouster proceedings against two trade officials today in the face of an accusation that the real reason for its action is fear of a congressional investigation. Department officials said "maladministration" charges are being readied against William W. Remington similar to those handed yesterday to Michael E. Lee.

Both Remington and Lee are $10,000-a-year officials of the department's office of international trade. Both have denied congressional charges that they are poor security risks; both have refused to quit, as requested by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer.

Lee was notified yesterday that he will be fired unless he can refute the maladministration accusation within five days.

He retorted in a statement that the accusation was a subterfuge: That Sawyer had yielded to an "ultimatum" by some senators that the department would be in-

Educational Campaigns Help But Can Not Solve Traffic Problem

At least 560 persons were killed in the United States during the four-day Memorial Day weekend, 34 of them in Michigan, for the worst Memorial Day holiday slaughter in history. Most of the victims were killed in traffic accidents.

The weekend slaughter on the nation's highways developed despite the most vigorous campaign for caution. It is a most discouraging result and presages an ever greater death toll during the July 4 weekend, which also will extend over a four-day period.

Newspaper and radio campaigns pleading for careful driving may help prevent the death toll in traffic accidents from reaching astronomical levels, but such campaigns will not adequately solve the problem. That has been apparent for a long, long time. Despite more vigorous educational campaigns each year, the traffic death toll grows ever larger.

There probably just isn't any single way in which the traffic accident problem can be effectively met. A tougher attitude upon the part of enforcement officers and particularly the courts is certainly needed. Motorists who sway in and out of traffic, menacing not only their lives but the lives of others as well, cannot be controlled in their actions by articles in the newspapers or speeches on the radio, but they may take some heed of a stiff attitude by the courts in reckless driving and drunken driving cases.

Every motorist must share the heavy costs of traffic accidents. Even those who are not involved in accidents and thereby escape the pain and suffering of injuries are billed, through liability, property damage and collision insurance charges, for their share of the total cost.

Another Graduation Season Arrives

THIS is high school graduation time. And, as usual, there will be flowery commencement speeches. But there also will be a note of stern reality—what to do now that school is out.

Will it be college or will it be a job?

A college education, indeed, is desirable and as many students as possible should aim for one. But financial difficulties will stop some youngsters from going to college. And there are a lot of others who are not suited to college.

It is not a disgrace not to be suited to college. Many of the world's greatest achievements were made by men and women who never went to college.

If youngsters are more suited for trades, there is no use wasting time in a four-year college course. Better attend a trade school. In looking around for a spot to light in the future, a lot of Escanaba youngsters—like many of those in the past—are going to say: "The first thing I'm going to do is get out of this town. There are no opportunities here for me."

To those we would say this: If you have the wanderlust, get out and see how the other half lives.

But think on this: There are a lot of persons living in Escanaba who could be "big shots" in so-called "big time." But they prefer to stay in Escanaba because they have found happiness in a pretty, wide-awake small town.

Opportunity—like happiness—is where you find it—and there are both here in Escanaba if youngsters care to look.

Gold Says That He Meant No Harm

STRANGE people often say strange things.

Take the case of Harry Gold, the biological chemist who has been arrested as a conspirator with Dr. Klaus Fuchs of England in delivering American atomic secrets to Russia.

Gold is reported to have admitted his part in the spy ring and has told U. S. Judge James P. McGranery that he will plead guilty. But, he insists, he did not mean to do any harm to the United States and further, he wants to have the right to "continue to cooperate" with the FBI.

It is difficult, if not impossible to understand what Gold means when he says that he did not intend to cause any harm to the United States. And it is equally difficult to comprehend his remark that he wants to "continue to cooperate" with the FBI. It is significant, we think, that there was no evidence of "cooperation" with the FBI on his part until after the federal agents had traced the atomic espionage trail to his door.

Treason is among the world's worst crimes and if the charges against Gold are true, he was and is, indeed, a traitor. "Cooperation" at this stage of the game can simply be a gesture for sympathy and for leniency, to which a traitor is not entitled.

DON'T LEAN ON UNCLE SAM

(The San Francisco News)

Cling peach growers in the San Joaquin Valley, confronted by a record carry-over of four million cases of their product, have launched a campaign to dispose of it by the methods of private enterprise, rather than by relying upon government aid.

With assistance of the Fresno Press Club, they have undertaken widespread publicity throughout the country to call attention to their problem and solicit purchases. By such means they hope to get rid of the carry-over and make way for the expected heavy crop of this year.

It is encouraging when an agricultural group relies upon its own devices to solve a dilemma like this. So frequently food producers run to the federal government with demands that it take surpluses off their hands. The result is piling up of vast quantities of crops (potatoes, eggs, butter, grains, etc.) in government warehouses all over the country and ultimate dumping or actual destruction of them, at terrific cost to the taxpayers.

Toward all of these the Senate and House should take a constructive, statesmanlike attitude. If they do not, congressional spouting about federal waste and inefficiency will have an empty sound for a long time to come.

Countless words and lots of music have been written of the spring, and the lovely brand of weather that it's always sure to bring. It's a season that is welcomed by the people every year, when a balmy breeze is blowing and the robins reappear. But when June arrives with blazing sun which shines until the fall, then you wonder, as you sweat it out, if spring were here at all.

Why, it seems like only yesterday you shivered in the cold, and you dreamed of lovely springtime being safely in the fold. You were glad to think of weather not too chill and not too hot, when a man could lie a-snoozin' in his grassy garden plot. Yep, that's what you sure imagined when you heard the April call, but in June you sweat it out and ask if spring were here at all.

When you're packed into a crowded bus and mop your dripping brow, and that burning, sizzling sun will not a cooling breeze allow, then you're sure that you've been double-crossed about the myth of spring, which with all its vaunted glory—well, there ain't no such a thing. For the longer goes the summer as you sweat it out till fall, you're convinced that spring's a phony and was never here at all.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Jim McNerny, the assistant attorney general, was testifying in secret before the Tydings committee regarding the stolen documents in the Amerasia case.

McNerny, now in charge of the justice department's criminal division, handled the Amerasia prosecution when he had a lower position in the justice department five years ago. And the man who cross-examined him, Senate Committee Counsel Ed Morgan, once worked in the FBI as a top expert on Communists. They know each other well.

"Jim," asked Morgan, "did anyone ever bring any pressure on you regarding these people who were indicted in the Amerasia case?"

"Yes," replied McNerny.

Republican senators pricked up their ears. This was just what they had been looking for. The Scripps-Howard newspaper chain, now sued for libel by one of the Amerasia ex-defendants, has been claiming that political pressure caused the justice department to drop the case.

"Where did the pressure come from?" continued Morgan.

"The White House," replied McNerny.

Republican senators were all smiles. Democratic senators looked worried.

"Who is the White House?" pressed Morgan.

"The president," said the tight-lipped McNerny, apparently not willing to volunteer anything unless asked.

"What did the president say?" asked Morgan. By this time both Democrat and Republican senators were almost holding their breath.

"The president called me on the phone," said McNerny, "and said, 'Don't let anything stop you from sending those b-----s to jail.'"

The senators relaxed. The Republicans looked disappointed. But they knew it for no other reason than because they were familiar with the president's mule-driver language, that McNerny was telling the truth.

WHY CASE WAS DROPPED

The real story of why McNerny could not carry out the president's orders is now fairly well understood—namely, because OSS and FBI men searched the Amerasia office and Emmanuel Larsen's apartment without a warrant, thereby violating the 4th amendment.

However, the slow-speaking McNerny, a Catholic, conscientious, and with the map of Ireland written all over his face, gave a graphic account during his first closed-door session with the senators. He told, among other things, how he had persuaded Judge James Proctor to hold special court on Saturday, Sept. 29, 1945, in order to handle the Amerasia case.

At first Judge Proctor had demurred at holding court on Saturday. But the reason for the special session, McNerny explained to senators, was because one defendant, Larsen, had discovered the FBI illegally entered his apartment, had filed a motion to dismiss, and McNerny feared other defendants would get wise and also move to dismiss.

Therefore, he had to act fast.

The chief defendant, Philip Jaffe, had hinted that he might plead "guilty." So McNerny immediately got hold of his attorney and put across an agreement that the justice department would accept a fine if Jaffe would plead guilty. McNerny said he knew that if Jaffe's lawyer and Larsen's lawyer had a chance to confer and Jaffe learned about the illegal search, the government would not be able to convict anyone.

Therefore he phoned the District of Columbia clerk of the court and asked him to withhold from the press Larsen's motion to dismiss, for fear Jaffe would hear about it. This was on Friday.

The clerk replied that once a court paper is filed, it becomes a public record, and that three newsmen were demanding the Larsen motion already.

Fortunately, only a small squib about the case appeared in the Washington Star on Friday afternoon. By Saturday morning, however, Jaffe's attorney realized that the entire prosecution was about to collapse, and grumbled about going through with his agreement to plead Jaffe "guilty." However, he finally did so. Judge Proctor fined him $2,500.

McNerny told the senators that instead of deserving criticism he thought the justice department had done pretty well to get even two defendants fined, instead of having the entire case blow up in its face.

MEASLES AND MUMPS

Question: My English class will be grateful to you if you will discuss such words as measles, mumps, polio, athletics. Are the words singular or plural?

Answer: Many familiar words are confusing because (1) they are singulars that look and sound like plurals; or (2) they are actually plurals that are used as singulars. Let us discuss them in that order.

(1) These words are singular nouns: cheese; pulse; lens. Their plurals are: cheeses; pulses; lenses.

(2) These words are plural in form, but are treated, grammatically, as singulars: mumps; measles; mathematics; economics; politics; species; series; molasses. Correct: Mumps (or measles) is contagious. Mathematics (or economics) is a difficult study. This species is rare. The series is incomplete. Molasses is a thick sirup.

Important: The words in group two may also be used as plurals, but the spelling remains unchanged. Thus it is correct to say: (There are mumps (or measles) of several kinds. There are mathematics of several classes. The various economics (or politics) of Europe are being studied. Three series of lectures were held. There are many species of flowers. There are molasses of various brands.

Exceptions: The noun news, while plural in form, is always used as a singular: Here is the news from our various correspondents.

Fact, fallacy, legend and superstition all are blended in what's "common knowledge" about creatures which millions of Americans will meet at first hand this season as they go out of doors. But it is not true, as most folks believe, that the porcupine, top right, actually shoots his quills. Nor is it true, either, that the eagle, top left, is a baby-stealer despite his nommally predatory habits. Lower left, can you tell the age of a deer by counting the points of his antlers? (The answer, contrary to a widely held view, is no). Among the most meticulous of all animals is the raccoon, shown in the bottom right picture. He usually washes his food before eating it.

People Believe Many Fallacies About Birds, Bees And Animals, Too

By HERBERT HOLLANDER

Do you believe handling toads will cause warts?

Are you convinced that a snake never dies until sundown?

Is it true that bats are blind?

This year a record number of Americans are going to spend more time than ever before in the outdoors; which means, among other things, that they are going to come into a lot of first-hand—or near first-hand, anyway—contact with wildlife large and small. Now, naturalists tell you that people harbor all sorts of misinformation about animals; and they believe those old wives' tales with an intensity which defies time and fact.

Take a look at some facts and fallacies, and check your own staunch convictions against this true or false quiz, which should be especially useful at this season.

Is it true that handling toads will cause warts?

Nope, it isn't, no matter how long you've "known" that to be a "fact"; and no matter how much little Johnny points to his and affirms just exactly how he got 'em.

But here's something odd that you may not have known about the toad: He actually uses his eyeballs to help push food down his throat, a mighty neat trick indeed.

Porkies Move Fast

Do you believe that porcupines "shoot" their quills to protect themselves against their enemies?

Most people do. Indeed, this is one of the most widely-held of all beliefs regarding animals commonly found over wide areas in this country.

But it is not so, although the porcupine moves so fast, and whips its tail about with such incredible speed, that it may seem to be the case. Actually, however, virtually all persons or animals pierced by the painfully sharp quills have come into actual contact with the porcupine.

More people than not are positive that a snake doesn't finally cash in his checks until that evening sun goes down; but that's just another superstition, which just won't do. But how about this:

Can a snake swallow objects of far greater girth than itself?

The answer to that one is a resounding yes; and it's a sight to behold, too.

Practically everybody is sure that bats are blind. After all, isn't the expression "blind as a bat" part of the language? But bats definitely are not blind. Their sight may not be as sharp as that of many other animals but they can see both at night and day, and quite well enough for all of their needs.

It's legendary, too, that if given the slightest opportunity bats will fly into one's hair. But that isn't so either. Bats have flown into peoples' hair, all right; but it is just by chance, and usually when they've been frightened after they have gotten into a house by mistake and are the object of a hectic chase.

When a vacationist tells you he actually has seen a raccoon washing his food before eating it, is he just imagining things?

Whiskey No Antidote

Well, odd as it seems, that isn't something dreamed up over a campfire; it's really so and while "coons aren't invariably so meticulous it happens often enough, so we're told to put that one definitely in the "true" column.

Since time out of mind it has been the practice of many folks in packing for a trip to take along a bottle of strong spirits in case of snakebite.

As a matter of fact, any number of people are certain that large doses of whiskey are the best possible antidote for snake venom.

But that's not so at all. Whatever other powers it may have, whiskey is something to be carefully avoided in cases of snakebite.

For the record, here's what you should do if a member of your party is bitten by a snake. Get him to a doctor as quickly as possible. In the meantime, apply first aid treatment to make a small incision where the venom has entered—unless over an artery—and then suck the wound for at least half an hour. The all-important job is to prevent the poison from spreading. If this is done, harm will be averted. Also, don't get panicky. More people have died of fright after snakebite than from the venom. Over-stimulation must be avoided; and that's why alcohol is out as a treatment.

But it is true, unfortunately, that if a rattlesnake's fangs are removed they'll grow back.

And speaking of things growing back, if a skunk's scent glands are removed—as they often are when pets are made of these really handsome and friendly creatures—must the operation be repeated periodically?

Here's another case where the answer is no, although many think contrary-wise.

Many a deer will be sighted all around the country this season and that recalls the ancient assertion that one can tell the age of these animals by the number of points on the antlers.

Deer's Antlers

Well, that is false, too, although it can be considered true up to a certain point, no pun intended. As a deer grows older the number of points does increase, but you can't tell the years by counting the points. Moreover, when the animal gets past a certain age the process stops.

That's something like the business of looking at a horse's teeth to tell its age. Horse-wise folk do look at the horse's mouth to judge approximately how old the steed is; but the tip-off is not the number of teeth, which remain constant, but the amount of wear they reveal.

There are all sorts of widely-believed fallacies in connection with birds.

As a matter of fact, one naturalist said quite seriously that it was surprising how tenaciously the one about the stork bringing babies still holds on.

But even those sophisticates who are convinced that the stork has little or nothing to do with it repeat year after year the "true story" of an eagle in the next county, or the next State, or just across the border, who mated off with a small child and a couple of lambs clutched in beak and talons.

Is it true that some birds migrate as much as 16,000 miles in a single year, and that some can fly as much as 2,000 miles non-stop?

Amazing as it seems, both of those are in the realm of fact and not fancy.

Birds nesting in the United States at this hour may be found in the farthest reaches of South America next winter. Some birds have a range from the Arctic to the Antarctic.

Most of the very long non-stop hops by birds are over ocean wastes; and non-stop means just that, for these are species which can not come down to rest upon the surface. Thus, in these as in so many other instances, fact is very literally stranger than fancy.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

FLOWER SHOWS—The indefatigable O. V. "Ollie" Thatcher of Escanaba, remarked in passing the other day that Escanaba might consider sponsoring a spring tulip festival.

The idea is excellent, but we have a few thoughts of our own on the subject.

The growers of flowers do not confine their efforts to tulips, so perhaps a summer flower show, open to all varieties of flowering plants, might be more successful and bring a larger representation.

And why confine the flower show to Escanaba? The whole Delta county area could be invited.

There are many fine flowers grown by home gardeners in the county. Some of the finest spring flowers to attract our attention were in the yard of the Fred Van Remortel home at Fayette.

GIVING THE SIGNAL—We saw the Van Remortel flowers on Memorial Day on a trip to Fayette. At the top of the Fayette hill was Fred, erecting a new "Welcome to Fayette" sign. And farther on was his home and the spring flowers in bloom—undoubtedly to be attributed to the skill of Mrs. Van Remortel.

But we meant to tell you that on a recent night trip to Rapid River to meet the late bus from the east, we had an experience in Gladstone that left us mad—and scared. An oncoming car occupied our side of the street and we took to the shoulder and out into Van Cleve Park. Cars behind us did the same to avoid being run down.

Intending to report the matter to the state police we stopped at the station—but the door was locked and no one answered our knock. We went on because we had to meet that bus at Rapid River.

HOW YOU DO IT—The following day in a conversation with Tom Bolger of Gladstone, we told him of our experience.

"Didn't you see the bell?" he asked. "All you have to do is ring it. There is someone there all the time."

We had not seen the button that rings the bell. You who read this and want to summon a state policeman to the door, make a mental note.

It is understandable that the state police department, short on funds and long on efficiency, would want to keep as many officers on the road as possible. The officer at the station gets some shut-eye during the late hours but will come bounding down to the door—if you ring the bell.

CITY PROPERTY—We have wandered a long way from flower shows, but that's the kind of a spring day it is.

So we might as well wander down to Ludington Park in Escanaba and take a look at the view of well kept lawns and trees, with the blue waters of the bay shimmering beyond.

But don't go around on Sand Point. There are certain smells there of dead fish and other refuse that contribute nothing to the area. As one old fellow used to say: "The smell is enough to knock a dog off a gut wagon."

Back at Municipal Dock Park the tulips are budding out (here come those flowers again) and over on the west side—the lawn set aside for public use—fishermen had stretched about an acre of tarred nets out to dry.

IT CAN BE DONE—What ever happened to the city's plan to develop the east end of Ludington street as a boulevard?

You may recall that the street was to be divided starting in the 200 block and flowers and shrubs and trees would be planted in the center dividing lane. Such things are not too costly and contribute greatly to the beauty of a city.

For most people do like an attractive city, well-kept yards, and at least a few flowers. Perhaps Ollie Thatcher's suggestion of a flower show has more merit than we indicate in this column. Personally, we're all for it.

Into The Past

19 YEARS AGO

Berlin—Adolf Hitler today decreed freedom for Dutch prisoners of war taken in the German army's five-day sweep across The Netherlands.

Washington — A German-Italian peace move, backed by an ultimatum that Italy will enter the war unless it is accepted, is expected by well-informed officials to follow the end of the battle in Flanders within a few days.

Rogers City—Rep. Fred Bradley of Rogers City has announced he will be a candidate for reelection as congressman from the Eleventh Michigan district.

Menominee—The city of Menominee shows a decline in population of 112 persons over the past 10 years, according to preliminary figures released by John C. Daley, supervisor of census. Menominee's unofficial 1940 population was set at 10,208 as compared with 10,320 for 1930.

20 YEARS AGO

Washington, D. C.—The return to normalcy in the United States will depend greatly on the export business. There has been a marked decline in exports, caused by a diminishing purchasing power in foreign countries.

In a recent Literary Digest magazine poll on the question of repealing the prohibition amendment, Escanaba and other Upper Peninsula cities voted "wet" by a large majority.

George King, who has been playing with the Stanley theater orchestra in Pittsburgh, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt L. King, 412 South Seventh street.

Twenty members of the Escanaba Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed an outing and motor trip to Marquette. Mrs. Lillian H. Reynolds, president of the Escanaba club, spoke at a program at Marquette, where the Escanaba women were guests of the Marquette club.

Myth

Countless words and lots of music have been written of the spring, and the lovely brand of weather that it's always sure to bring. It's a season that is welcomed by the people every year, when a balmy breeze is blowing and the robins reappear. But when June arrives with blazing sun which shines until the fall, then you wonder, as you sweat it out, if spring were here at all.

Why, it seems like only yesterday you shivered in the cold, and you dreamed of lovely springtime being safely in the fold. You were glad to think of weather not too chill and not too hot, when a man could lie a-snoozin' in his grassy garden plot. Yep, that's what you sure imagined when you heard the April call, but in June you sweat it out and ask if spring were here at all.

When you're packed into a crowded bus and mop your dripping brow, and that burning, sizzling sun will not a cooling breeze allow, then you're sure that you've been double-crossed about the myth of spring, which with all its vaunted glory—well, there ain't no such a thing. For the longer goes the summer as you sweat it out till fall, you're convinced that spring's a phony and was never here at all.

Bappert, a quiet, stocky man of 42, came here at the age of 13. He figures that in the last 29 years he has made 13,920,000 loops with his needle in sewing about 348,000 buttonholes. He averages 12,000 buttonholes a year.

"I do not find it dull," he said. "People think there is nothing to it. They say, 'what is a buttonhole?' A buttonhole is nothing." But it takes years of work to learn to make a buttonhole right."

Bappert supervises 18 girls in the buttonhole department of Stuarts hand-tailoring firm. It takes him five minutes to make a 40-loop buttonhole.

America Running Short Of Gimps

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—Every day we wake up to a new crisis. And don't think we haven't got a grim one for today.

It's this: America is getting short of gimps. There are plenty of old gimps, but there aren't enough strong young new gimps coming along.

A gimp is a person who earns his living sewing buttonholes. "There are only about 3,500 buttonhole makers left in this country—and most of them are old men," said John Maxmillian Bappert, the Rembrandt in this field.

Work Not Dull
"The young people seem not interested too much in buttonholes. They seem interested in other things."

This is heresy to Bappert who recently was picked by a trades school here as the nation's outstanding buttonhole maker. His family sewed buttonholes for three generations before him in Hungary.

DETROIT MAN WAS RUN DOWN, NERVOUS AND WEAK BEFORE USING O-JIB-WA

Before I took O-JIB-WA BITTERS, I just didn't feel good. I was always tired and nervous and couldn't sleep well, says Mr. William Allaria of 770 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit.

Mr. Allaria

Mr. Allaria's Testimonial Follows:
"I cannot say enough for O-JIB-WA BITTERS and what it has done for me. Before using it, I just didn't feel good. I was tired, run down and nervous and I couldn't sleep. I used to get up in the morning as tired as I was when I went to bed. It was extremely hard to do my day's work, especially in the afternoon, as the hours just seemed to drag by. My feet and ankles burned continually and I practically dragged myself around and all I felt like doing when I got home at night was to lay around."

RESULTS IN TWO WEEKS
"I decided to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS on the recommendation of a friend. In less than two weeks, I felt better. I was no longer nervous and had no trouble at all getting a good night's sleep. My work is no longer a drudge and I feel good even after a full day's work. O-JIB-WA built me up generally and not only gave me more pep, but it also eliminated the gas and indigestion that I suffered with frequently."

HAVE RECOMMENDED TO MANY

"I know of at least a dozen men who work at the place where I work that have taken O-JIB-WA, and they all think it's O.K., too. Personally, I think O-JIB-WA BITTERS can't be beat and I wouldn't be without it. I always recommend it highly."

WHAT IT IS HOW IT WORKS

O-JIB-WA BITTERS is an all herb medicine, containing no dope or harmful drugs. This great medicine acts to upset and drive out the causes of most common stomach ills. O-JIB-WA is like taking "3 medicines in 1" as it stimulates the digestive organs, stopping gas, indigestion and heartburn. It helps to clear the blood of poisons and waste that foster dizzy spells, headaches and rheumatism. O-JIB-WA stimulates weak sluggish kidneys to relieve backaches, night rising and restless sleep. Yet, it is truly an amazing medicine and much more could be said for it, however, the proof is in its use. We urge every sufferer to try this medicine. O-JIB-WA BITTERS is not expensive. It is available in three economical sizes and sold in all leading drug stores in Michigan, being especially recommended by:

DISDEE, CITY, PEOPLES DRUG STORES IN ESCANABA, IVORY DRUG IN GLADSTONE, SIDDALL DRUG, PUTNAM DRUG IN MANISTIQUE

ALMA MATER

Two Latin words, rich in sentiment! To some they awaken memories of ivy-covered halls. But to many more they recall happy days in the old country schoolhouse.

Literally, they mean fostering mother. And that's what a school becomes, a third parent, preparing her children for life.

But all of us need to realize still another "fostering" parent, The Church—the earthly tutor who reveals to men the love of the Heavenly Father.

We never graduate from the Church! Sometimes we play hookey for a while. But sooner or later most of us discover that there is no substitute for the spiritual "upbringing" the Church provides.

And that discovery is the most thrilling commencement in life, for with it begins man's achievement of the highest goals in living.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

New Hospital Now In Use

Patient Transfer Took Place June 1

Thursday was moving day at the Shaw hospital.

The building, which has carried on since 1935 as a place where the sick and the injured were treated and where hundreds of the area's younger citizenry were brought into this world, is no longer serving in that capacity. All the patients were moved out of the place to the new Schoolcraft Memorial hospital. The place, which yesterday, was crowded to its utmost capacity, Thursday night was strangely silent.

The transfer was made quietly and without any confusion. The situation had been mapped out beforehand. The Morton ambulance took the patients to the hospital, attendants knew, without any hesitation, where the patients were assigned and it was just a matter of a few minutes for each patient to be comfortably settled and taking note of his or her new surroundings.

Just before the exodus from the Shaw hospital began, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Caldwell. Had Master Caldwell waited but a few minutes he would have been eligible to receive the elaborate array of gifts offered by Manistique merchants to the first baby born in the new institution. There is no disappointment in the Caldwell household, however. The young man is a husky chap weighing eight pounds and his mother is reported as doing nicely.

No announcement has been made as to the use the Shaw hospital building will be put.

Water Survey Starts Monday

City-Wide Check On Fixtures Planned

A survey of water fixtures and outlets in residences and business places in the city is to be throughout the City of Gladstone beginning next Monday. City Manager H. J. Henrikson announces.

Donald Gazlay, deputy clerk in the city office, is to make the survey.

Purpose of the survey is to bring the city record of fixtures in every place in Gladstone using city water up-to-date and to check for leaks.

At the present time as much water is being pumped daily as used normally by a city with four times the population. It is believed that the information obtained will result in both added revenue to the city and a reduction in daily gallonage pumped through stoppage of leaks.

Cooperation of local citizens in taking the survey through their property is being urged by the city manager.

About a month to 6 weeks will be required to make the survey, it is estimated.

Two Saved After Boat Overturns

Jim Norrick, Gladstone night policeman, and his son, Jerry, 15, lost their fishing tackle but today are none the worse for a boating accident that left them clinging to their overturned boat for about 25 minutes last night before they were rescued.

The accident occurred about 8 p. m. when their boat was capsized off the Kipling shore in a sudden windstorm. They overturned as they were preparing to stop fishing and head for shore.

They clung to the boat for nearly a half hour and were losing hope of rescue when they saw a party of fishermen approaching.

The fishermen were from Chicago and are staying at the Brock cabins. Fortunately they had decided to set out after the storm passed, noticed the Norrick's overturned boat and the heads bobbing in the water, and went to the rescue. Norrick failed to obtain their names in the excitement.

Although they lost their tackle, Norrick and his son today felt themselves fortunate. Their lives were saved, and so also was their boat and motor.

Brownie Troop Has Fly-Up Ceremonies

Girl Scout Brownie Troop No. 17 had its Fly-up on Wednesday and the Brownies are now fledgling Intermediate Girl Scouts.

In the flag ceremony Joyce Brewer was the flag bearer with Karen Hult and Frances McCrum as guards. The girls used the horseshoe form for the ceremony and sang America and Golden Sun.

The girls received their Fly-up Wings and Girl Scout Pins from Mrs. Tom Hite and Mrs. Jule Potvin, the troop leaders.

After the ceremony, mothers of the girls, 17 in number, were served with tea, sandwiches and cookies.

Green treefrogs and yellow tag-cars were used in table decorations.

Briefly Told

Returns From Florida—James Bedore arrived recently by Nationwide Airlines from Tampa, Fla., where he spent the winter and is making his home with the Tom Hites.

By international action, the name of the metal and chemical element, tungsten, has been changed to wolfram, by which it generally has been known outside the United States.

New Dock Is About Ready

City and Yacht Club Sponsor Project

The new boat dock and parking area south of the Gladstone Yacht club is about completed.

The work has been done by city employees working under the direction of Commodore Clyde Cole of the Yacht club under a plan sponsored jointly by the city of Gladstone and the Yacht club.

Piling and sheeting was placed along the shore line paralleling the Yacht club and fill taken mainly from the bay with dredge or shovel placed behind the piling. A heavy plank top was constructed.

A ramp was also constructed toward the easterly end of the dock so that the boats owners may back their boats with trailer down the ramp and launch the boats with minimum of effort. It may also be used to facilitate removal of boats from the bay.

Graveling and placing of topsoil on areas to be seeded is about all remaining to be done.

A new flag pole also has been erected by the club at the dock-site.

Al Kircher will be "heading this way" in a week or so.

"My vacation starts about June 10 and I plan on spending the summer in the Upper Peninsula so probably will see you soon," writes Al from Pullman, Wash., where he is finishing spring football practice as assistant coach at Washington State college.

"I'll be in Gladstone at least a few days. In the meantime, give my regards to our mutual friends."

Apparently, Al likes his new setup.

"I am quite pleased with my change financially and from the working angle," writes the former Gladstone high school and Michigan State college star athlete.

"Although this school is somewhat smaller than Michigan State, I am connected only with football, which makes my working season somewhat different from what I had at MSC."

"As you know, there I was in football, basketball and baseball, which makes a pretty long season."

What are the prospects at Washington State next fall?

"We are not too deep at any one position," says Al.

"From the results of our spring practice, I would say that if we do not have too many injuries to key players, we should be able to give a fair account of ourselves in most of the games."

"This has been let slide here the last couple years and it is going to take a while for us to build up."

"However, there are some good looking high school prospects in the state and, if we can 'hogtie' a few of them this fall, we should be in fair shape in a couple of years."

A lot of sport fans in "these parts" will be watching Washington State in football next fall.

Local Skiers Jump Sunday At Rockford

Members of the Escanaba Ski club will jump in a meet Sunday. No, you didn't read that wrong. They will compete in the second annual summer ski jumping tournament Sunday at Rockford, Ill.

How is it done? Over a layer of straw, a blanket of shaved ice is laid and finished off with special "snow cement" imported from Switzerland.

Competing in the class B event will be John Grodesky, John Manning and Bill Ferarri and in class C will be Tom Fisher and John Prokos.

The meet, sanctioned by the U. S. Ski association, will also draw skiers from Iron Mountain and Ispening.

Williams Denies Trade To Tigers

BOSTON—(P)—The rains came again here last night and, while washing out another Boston ball game, gave everybody concerned ample opportunity to deny the latest Ted Williams rumor.

What set off the latest Williams explosion was a story by a New York columnist that Williams wanted to be traded to Detroit after the 1950 season.

Williams, rather belatedly, caught up with the rumor at Fenway park, just after last night's game with the Cleveland Indians was postponed.

"The rumor that I have or will request that I be traded by the Red Sox at the end of this season is without foundation," Williams said. "Furthermore, I have not talked to the writer who quoted me in such fashion at any time during this season. Just the idea of playing for anybody except

Upbay Legion At Manistique Junior Loop Teams "Beat" Season

GLADSTONE—The Gladstone Legion open its baseball season with an exhibition game against the Manistique Legion at Manistique Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

Both teams play in the Waubesa league under the American Legion National baseball setup.

Regular league play begins on Sunday, June 11.

Under the direction of Gordon Haga, the local Legion has been holding practice sessions for three weeks and this will be the first test against good competition. Manistique fielded a strong team last season.

The starting lineup of the Gladstone team will be selected from Pitchers Bill Sundling, Jim LaLonde and Wayne Marmlick; infielders Ed Pilon, Lowell LaPlant, Jack Soderman, Bill Young, Tom LaLonde, Herman LaFave and Bill Rasmussen; outfielders John Alworden, Tom Cannon, LeRoy Jacobsen, Tom Moreau, Louie Louis, Alger Strom and Neil Sinclair.

Players will meet at the Recreation building at 12:15 o'clock Sunday noon for the trip.

Marion Slams Full House Homer As Cards Win, 5-2

(By The Associated Press)

Old Cardinals never die. Take Marty Marion for instance. For 11 major league years, Mr. Shortstop went quietly about his business. Never did he hit a home run with the bases loaded. Never, until last night.

Marty waited until they really needed one. With Brooklyn in town and the Cardinals scrambling to wipe out the May 18 horror of blowing an 8-0 lead, Marion hit his grand slam homer. The resulting 5-2 victory hoisted St. Louis into a first place tie with the Dodgers.

And this was the same Marion whose condition worried Manager Eddie Dyer all spring. Worried him so much that he talked owner Fred Saigh into signing Eddie Miller as a fill-in, just in case.

Miller opened the season, played all but a few innings of the first 14 games. Eddie was doing fine but the Cards bumped along in fifth place at a 500 clip.

After the nerve-shattering episode of May 18 a Brooklyn, the Cardinals were left for dead. Back they came, with Marion playing almost every day, to win 10 of 12. Now they have caught the Dodgers.

Howie Pollet, another Cardinal of 1941-42 vintage, backed up Marion's clout with a five-hit pitching job. It was Howard's first 1950 conquest of the Brooks.

The Philadelphia Phils and Boston Braves both closed in on the Dodgers and Cards with afternoon victories. The Phils racked up Chicago, 8-4, moving to within a half game of the leaders.

Curt Simmons, with his customary aid from reliever Jim Konstanty, grabbed his seventh win at the expense of Frank Hiller, routed in a five-run second inning.

Sid Gordon's grand slam homer, his second of the year, started Boston on its way to a 14-2 rout

Louis season, turned out for the series opener. They play again tonight and tomorrow afternoon.

The Philadelphia Phils and Boston Braves both closed in on the Dodgers and Cards with afternoon victories. The Phils racked up Chicago, 8-4, moving to within a half game of the leaders.

Curt Simmons, with his customary aid from reliever Jim Konstanty, grabbed his seventh win at the expense of Frank Hiller, routed in a five-run second inning.

Sid Gordon's grand slam homer, his second of the year, started Boston on its way to a 14-2 rout of Pittsburgh. It was the Pirates' ninth straight loss, their longest losing streak in 11 years.

Cincinnati and New York split a twilight-night doubleheader with the Reds, taking the second game, 5-2, behind Ewell Blackwell. A four-run rally in the ninth inning gave the Giants the opener, 8-7.

Rain washed out the Detroit at Philadelphia and Cleveland at Boston night games in the American League. New York got a chance to pick up ground on all the first division clubs. They did.

Coming from behind to tie in the ninth, the Yankees whipped Chicago's revamped White Sox, 6-5, in 10 innings. Hank Bauer scored from first base on a bloop single by Gerry Coleman and an error by outfielder Dave Philley. Joe Page, who followed Allie Reynolds and Bob Porterfield to the mound, picked up his third win by working only the tenth inning.

Three successive singles enabled the St. Louis Browns to nip Washington, 5-4, in 12 innings. The Senators, somewhat provoked when Bob Kuzava and Cass Michaels failed to show up after their recent trade, apologized to the fans.

Singles by Don Lenhardt, Hank Arft and Billy Sommers broke up the game.

Top Teams In Bay De Noc, Rainbow Circuits Clash In Sunday Tilts

After only two Sundays of play, there are only four teams unbeaten in the Rainbow league, three in the Bay de Noc loop and two in the Tri-County circuit.

These unbeaten teams will be whittled even further next Sunday, especially in the Rainbow league where the four top teams meet. In the Bay de Noc loop, two of the three top teams tangle.

In the Rainbow loop, Manistique will play at Gladstone and Groos will travel to Trenary, which has defeated Chatham and Escanaba.

Escanaba At Chatham
The other two unbeaten Rainbow league teams, Little Lake and Gwin, will tangle Sunday at Gwin. Little Lake has beaten Diorite and Munising while Gwin has disposed of North Lake and Marquette.

In other games in the league, Escanaba will play at Chatham, Gladstone will play at Groos, Marquette will be at North Lake and Diorite will travel to Munising.

In the top game of the Bay de Noc league, Fayette will play at Rapid River. Fayette has defeated Garden and Perkins while Rapid River has disposed of Cornell and Rock.

Nahma, which has defeated Garden and Perkins, will attempt to keep its record clean against Cooks on the latter's diamond. Cooks, last year's champ, has a one-one record.

In other Bay de Noc games, Rock will play at Perkins and Cornell will play at Garden.

Bark River Big Tilt
The nearest thing to a "deciding" game in the Tri-county league will be at Bark River where Perronville, with wins over Wilson and Felch, takes on the Bark, who have defeated Hermansville and lost to Stephenson.

Stephenson, the other undefeated team, will entertain the cellar-dwelling Wilson team.

Farther down the ladder, Powders will play at Foster City and Felch will play at Hermansville.

Tourney Led By Middlecoff

FORT WAYNE—(P)—Cary Middlecoff, national open golf champion, today had a one-stroke lead in the tight-packed field going into the second round of the $15,000 Fort Wayne open tournament.

He got out in front yesterday by knocking five strokes off the par 71 for the Orchard Ridge country club's 6,400 yards. Six birdies put him there.

Just a stroke off the pace were Herman Keiser of Lima, Ohio; Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, and Ed Oliver of Kenmore, Wash.

Skip Alexander of Knoxville, Tenn., and Ted Kroff of New Hartford, N. Y., were in the 68 slot.

Packed at 69 were six players—Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill.; Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich.; Gene Webb of St. Louis; Tom Belt of Houston, Tex.; Buck White of Greenwood, Mass., and Wally Ulrich of Minneapolis.

Jim Demaret of Ojai, Calif., three times Masters champion, was well back at 75.

Classy Sunday Softball Tilts Are Lined Up

Memorial Field will be the scene of some classy Class A softball Sunday night. An all-Class A doubleheader, will bring together the Liberty Loans and the Harnischfeger Red Sox. In the nightcap the youthful Hughes Motors team will clash with Ishpeming Liberty Loans.

At 7:15 the new and strong Harnischfeger Red Sox will try to make it two straight over the Liberty Loans. In their first encounter this season the Red Sox took a 6-3 decision over the always potent Loans.

Since losing two straight, the Loans have come up with a convincing eight inning win over the Paper Mills.

Sunday night's game may be a battle royal and as always anything can happen in a Loan game. Ike Els or Louie Kositzky and Bob Anderson will form the battery for the Loans, while Kenny Dufresne, who beat them once before, and Phil Braceau will do the duty for the Red Sox.

In the nightcap starting at 8:45, the surprisingly strong Hughes Motors team will take on a team that long has been considered one of the classiest Class A teams in the Upper Peninsula.

With an average age of nineteen everyone by currently riding in first place in the fast league. With convincing wins over White Birch and Liberty Loan, they have let it be known that they will have to be reckoned with.

Fitzpatrick, Adams or Courneene and Beaudion will compose the battery for Hughes Motors.

Teams Ordered To File Rosters

Softball teams which have failed to file their rosters will not be allowed to play next week, Paul Vardigan announced today. Deadline for filing was last night.

Members of the Steam Laundry will meet Saturday at 7:15 p. m. at the Cue and Cushion to go to Gladstone for a game under lights against the Bungalows.

Larmay's of Hyde will play an exhibition game at Carney Sunday evening against the Carney Blackhaws.

Last night, Pitcher Chuck Weber aided his own cause materially with a triple as Harnischfeger Nationals noted out the U. P. Power and Light team, 5 to 4. Dave Freeman hit a homer for the Harnischfeger crew. Art Peterson nipped for the losers.

In a feature game, the Harnischfeger Red Sox nipped the Paper Mills, 3 to 7, with Chuck Pettier getting two doubles for the winners. It was the Paper Mills first defeat in league play.

Kenny Dufresne was the winning pitcher and Paul Larson the loser. St. Thomas walloped Flat Rock, 10 to 1, Wednesday night at Royce park.

WAYNE NETTERS WIN
DETROIT—(P)—Wayne University's tennis team beat Central Michigan 6-1 yesterday.

Blind flying of airplanes first was tried about 1918.

St. Joe Athletes Are Busy Saturday

Coach Tom St. Germain of St. Joe has a knotty problem.

He finds himself hoping that a couple of his star baseball players lose Saturday—in tennis!

St. Joe baseball team plays its final two games of the season Saturday—in the morning at Neagawa and in the afternoon at Marquette against Baraga Parochials.

The hitch is that Fred Boddy, Jr., his star southpaw pitcher, and Wayne Papineau, regular catcher, are tennis players and will be competing in the Upper Peninsula class C-D-E finals at Marquette Saturday.

So, while St. Germain on one hand would like to see the boys win in tennis, he also would like to have them available in the afternoon when his baseball team play Baraga at Marquette.

If Boddy wins in tennis and has to continue playing in the afternoon while the baseball game is going on, the mound chores will be taken over by John Martineau.

St. Germain will start Don Paulin in the first game against Neagawa at 10 in the morning. The afternoon game is scheduled to start at 1:30.

Tennis players besides Boddy and Papineau competing at Marquette will be Al Dufour and Tom Brian.

Pep Out Of Class, Beats Terry Young
MILWAUKEE—(P)—Featherweight Champion Willie Pep went out of his weight class last night to give Terry Young, a New York lightweight, a convincing beating in a 10-round bout in the new Milwaukee arena.

Pep, elusive and easy, left-handed Young to death. Pep weighed 131 pounds to 138½ for Young.

Sonny Boy West, 136½, Washington, defeated Harold Jones, 140½, Detroit in 10 rounds.

Colonels Win Four In Row Over Indians

(By The Associated Press)

The third-place Louisville Colonels are making a dog-fight out of the American association race.

The Colonels made it four in a row over the skidding, league leading Indianapolis Indians last night with a 10 to 6 victory. It was the leaders' ninth defeat in their last 11 games.

Kansas City overpowered Minneapolis 16 to 8 in a long drawn-out contest interrupted twice by rain.

In other games, Toledo and Columbus split a double header. The Mud Hens won the opener 2 to 0 and Columbus capped the second game 6 to 4. St. Paul ended a five-game losing streak, defeating Milwaukee 12 to 6.

Home Makers Hold Program

Achievement Day At Rapid River

RAPID RIVER, Mich.—The annual Delta County Home Makers Achievement Day was held here yesterday with about 125 members of Home Extension clubs and their guests attending.

The meeting was in the Rapid River high school. Preliminary arrangements were made by Mrs. Sandy Short.

In the morning business session a delegate and two alternates were named to attend the home makers conference to be held at East Lansing in July.

Mrs. Wesley Hanson of Escanaba was named delegate, and Mrs. Nap Morin of Escanaba and Mrs. Louis Sorgenfrei of Rapid River are alternates.

Plan Fair Exhibit
A committee was named to set up an exhibit of children's clothing at the U. P. State Fair, representing work of Home Extension clubs in the county. The committee is composed of Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Isadore Chartrand and Mrs. Mel Nyquist of Escanaba.

The Home Makers also discussed their annual summer camp at Chatham, to be held this year from June 26 to 29. Reservations must be made by June 10.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Edwin Bergman of Bark River.

Horwood Speaker
Following the noon pot luck dinner, the Home Makers enjoyed a program arranged by Mrs. Nap

Morin. Group singing was led by Mrs. I. R. Nelson of Bark River, and Miss Ingrid Tervonen, county home demonstration agent, presented picture slides from photographs made last summer at Camp Shaw.

A dress review, in which members modeled frocks they had made after participating in pattern alteration lessons; and a skit by the Bark River group were presented.

Russ Horwood, superintendent of the experimental station at Chatham, and supervisor of Michigan State College Extension service in the Upper Peninsula, gave an interesting illustrated talk on conditions in Japan. Horwood assisted the U. S. military government in a program of agricultural development in Japan after the war.

Contributions were received from the Home Makers toward a fund to assist in paying the expenses of a German home extension person, who will spend six months in Michigan studying the program here and then return to establish a similar program there. Michigan Home Makers will pay this person's expenses while in the state.

Angered Son-In-Law Rams House With Car Until Police Arrive

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—(P)—Joel Mallory matched his automobile against his father-in-law's house in a ramming contest and was doing all right until a police car butted in.

He was overmatched then. The result is that he's charged with drunken driving.

Patrolman Paul Masters and Clyde Bullock, called to the home of Mallory's father-in-law, Joseph Knight, said they saw Mallory crash his twenty-year-old light car head on into a cement-and-brick porch.

"He backed up and rammed it two more times before we could grab him," Masters said. "When he backed up for the third time he hit our police car and that stopped him."

Mallory, 29, had an explanation: "I was mad at him," the officers quoted him as saying.

Patrolman Bullock surveyed the wreckage and totaled up this damage score: house, $300; Mallory's car, $50; police car $25.

Milk Ordinance To Be Revised

Higher Sanitation Standards Urged

Joseph Heirman, Delta county agricultural agent, told the Escanaba city council Thursday night that progress is being made on a proposed revision of the city milk ordinance and that the revised proposal will be presented to the council for consideration soon.

Pending the presentation of the proposal, which is designed to raise sanitation standards and other requirements of the city milk ordinance, the council adopted a resolution designed to forestall the issuance of more milk distributors' licenses in the city for the time being.

Heirman said the state's model milk ordinance is being studied for probable presentation to the council with some revisions to meet local conditions.

The council also approved the expenditure of $600 for a fireworks display in Escanaba on the evening of July 4. The request was made by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring a local celebration of the Independence Day holiday.

Other action taken by the council:

Approved a proposal to dismantle a city-owned building adjacent to the new Farmers' Market on North First avenue.

Approved a series of water main extensions for which no objections had been submitted.

Approved the appropriation ordinance and the tax ordinance for the 1950-51 fiscal year.

Received a petition for sidewalk construction on the east side of the 1600 block of Stephenson avenue.

Received a petition for sewer installations between Washington avenue and 23rd street from 15th avenue north to 17th avenue north.

Jets Clip Half Game Off Flint Arrow Lead

(By The Associated Press)

The pursuing Grand Rapids Jets clipped a half game off the league lead of the Flint Arrows in the Central league last night.

Eight walks and four errors helped the Jets to a 10-5 decision over the Charleston Senators while Flint was dividing two games with Dayton.

Pitchers Ernie Funk of Flint and Jim Ladd of Dayton exchanged five-hitters in the double-header at Dayton. Funk won the opener 12 to 0 and Ladd the nightcap 5 to 2.

The loss in the second game, coupled with Grand Rapids' victory, reduced Flint's lead over the Jets to three and a half games.

In the third game the Saginaw Bears slaughtered the Muskegon Clippers at Muskegon, 17 to 2, to remain in a nominal third place tie with Dayton.

Huge Hawaii Volcano Mauna Loa Erupts In Spectacular Show

HONOLULU—(P)—Mauna Loa, 13,680 foot volcano on the Island of Hawaii, erupted last night after 18 months of quiet.

Frank Oberhansley, Hawaii National Park superintendent, said "it was a spectacular show."

He said red hot lava broke out on the southwest flank of the volcano at about 9,000 feet.

Hilo, the only sizable city on the island, lies to the east.

Harry Blickhahn, editor of the Hilo Tribune-Herald, said at Hilo the eruption started at 9:30 p. m. (3:30 a. m., EDT, Friday).

Capt. G. B. Blackmore, pilot of a Pan-American stratosphere plane, flew over Mauna Loa at 10 p. m., said smoke columns towered to 20,000 feet.

The white-hot lava was clearly visible pouring out of the massive mountain, he said.

The red glow in the sky was visible from Diamond Head, 200 miles away on Oahu.

Young Robber Yields To Victim's Lecture

CHICAGO—(P)—Miss Gertrude Kress, owner of a women's shop, got back her $10 from a young robber yesterday after she urged him to give up crime.

Miss Kress said after she asked the youth why he didn't change his ways, he said he once asked God for help while he was in the army, "but He didn't come through." She assured him that if he tried to better himself, God would help him.

The young man then handed her the money and walked out, saying: "You've changed my way of looking at life."

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK — (P) — Shag Shaughnessy, international league president, asked: "What do you think of that White Sox-Washington deal?" And without waiting for an answer he continued: "they were trying all spring to sell those two pitchers, and they were going to hold out for big prices... so they wind up having to trade with each other... some of the writers are saying Ray Scarborough will go to the Yankees... after putting out a lot of money for Fred Sanford and Dick Wakefield, I don't think George Weiss will ever buy a player again."

When Stungis Was Stunned
One of the most surprising endings to a football game that ever occurred probably was in the 1943 Illinois-Ohio contest, which the Buckeyes won 15 minutes after the final gun... Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns, who was Ohio State coach, adds one detail that generally has been overlooked... as you recall, Illinois was off-side on the last play and the teams were called back from the dressing rooms to run it again... Brown knew what the play would be. He had nominated John Stungis to try for a field goal, though Stungis never had kicked one. "There's nothing to it, John," said Paul. "I never missed a field goal in my life."... Stungis' wobbly kick barely cleared the cross bar to give the Bucks a 29-26 victory... the elated athlete raced into the clubhouse screaming, "I'm even with you, coach. I've never missed a field goal either."... "John," answered Paul with a grin, "you're up on me. I never tried one."

Cleaning The Cuff
Maurice Podoloff is heading for Europe to check up on the Harlem Globe Trotters series of sellout basketball games and maybe pick up a few ideas to help build attendance in the National Basketball association. Maybe he'll bring back a Foles Bergere routine. Only three of 77 players listed on the U. of Missouri spring football roster had been outside that state. Don Faurot must have been economizing on railroad fares.

Pro Grid Teams Eye Player List

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—Owners and coaches of the National football league gather here today to obtain new and proven grid-iron material.

There's other business on the agenda but the 13 member clubs are mostly concerned with the drafting of players from the defunct Los Angeles Dons, Buffalo Bills and Chicago Hornets.

law, but can be disclosed on presidential order. Committee members said an executive order is "in the works" to help them get the information they need.

Senator Tobey (R-N. H.) told reporters Mr. Truman "is backing us 100 per cent."

The president would be setting no precedent by opening income tax returns and other such confidential information to the committee. He reminded newsmen he was given this privilege when he headed the senate war investigating committee during World War II.

Connections In Politics
Kefauver said he also expects to get information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Treasury department's narcotics division, and the Immigration bureau.

With information from these sources — added to information from local law enforcement agencies — the committee hopes to piece together the story of big-time underworld operations.

Specifically, the group has set out to chart broadly the source of underworld wealth, where it is invested, and what connections there may be between criminal and political groups.

The group has been checking on the activities of a number of big-time gamblers — among them Joe Adonis of New York.

Adonis testified yesterday to a grand jury investigating stamp deals of a former postal official.

Adonis wouldn't say anything to reporters about whether he was connected with the $600,000 operation or whether there was anything to reports he invested $120,000 and lost $100,000.

The grand jury is trying to determine whether there should be any criminal charges as a result of activities of Harold F. Ambrose, former special assistant to Postmaster General Donaldson at $10,000 a year. Ambrose quit his job in January after Donaldson reported he had accepted money from people speculating in commemorative stamps.

Dazed Lost Woman Found With Pet Dog

MANISTEE—(P)—A posse found 67-year-old Lilly Hires in the woods near her Springdale township home today, dazed and suffering from shock.

With her was her pet dog, Fannie, with whom she disappeared Tuesday while hunting mushrooms.

The dog had appeared briefly yesterday, then took off again into the woods before police could follow the trail.

The near-exhausted woman was taken to the hospital in Frankfort where it was reported she was in fair condition. She had suffered multiple bruises and scratches and from exposure.

Stalled Green Bay Yachters Spend Night Off Of Cedar River

Three unidentified Green Bay men spent last night aboard their stalled Chris Craft a half mile off Cedar river and this morning inflated a life raft, rowed to shore and came to Escanaba to get gasoline to refuel their boat.

The boat, accompanied by a similar ship, ran out of gas last night. The second boat came to Escanaba and called the Plum Island coast guard. The latter was unable to locate the stalled vessel, however, because its occupants had turned out the lights and had gone to bed.

The committee notified the state department and the two Soviet applicants that gallery membership is limited to resident Washington correspondents. Rassadin and Filippov have been stationed in New York.
